1) Clarification: Chariots are first placed, free of charge, in the Heroes Box (Rule 9.2.1), not in Men-Nefer. This is intentional! Rule 13.2 lets you “return” Chariots to Men-Nefer for 1 AP; this is how Chariots first become available for use (e.g. 12.13). The rules are correct, though some have seen this as counterintuitive. The idea is that their first placement in the Heroes Box makes them ‘available’ to the Player, but you have to spend 1 AP to actually raise the unit to where you can use it in the game.

2) Sequence of Play Correction: On the Sequence of Play, Advanced Literacy is listed as rule 12.13. It should read 12.12 (to conform with the Rules).
